

INFORMAL SAIL TIMES

If you would like to sail on the river with other members on an informal basis, the following are suggested sailing times when the tides are suitable to go out, also to be posted on website. Please note, there will be no safety boat cover on these occasions, nor any guarantee that people will turn up, depending on weather and other commitments, just increased chances of sailing in company and finding crew/boats. Use the members' message board on the website to register your interest for a particular date, especially if you are looking for a crew or volunteering yourself as crew, or subscribe to the 'Informal' mailing list. Happy sailing!
